

REMARKS / ARGUMENTS

The application stands allowed and its issue fee has been paid.

The applicant respectfully requests that this amendment be entered to correct a typographical oversight.

If, however, the Examiner believes that there are any unresolved issues requiring adverse action, it is requested that the Examiner telephone Jeffery J. Brosemer, Ph.D., ESQ. at 732-275-9167 so that arrangements may be made for resolving such issues as expeditiously as possible.

Conclusions:

The applicant submits that this amendment is necessitated to correct a typographical oversight. Inasmuch as this amendment does not provide any substantive changes to the application, the applicant respectfully requests the Examiner to enter this amendment.

Respectfully submitted,
JEFFERY J. BROSEMER
